SAMUEL DAVID RUBY, 11616 Jamestown Road, Dallas, Texas, advised he has no interest, financial or administrative, in the S & R Corporation. He further advised he has no interest, financial or administrative, in the Carousel Club or the Club Vegas in Dallas, Texas, which clubs are operated by his brother, JACK RUBY. He further advised that he is not aware that his name has ever appeared on any document as an officer in the S & R Corporation or in any way in the operation of the Carousel Club or the Club Vegas.

He advised that JACK RUBY, sometime within the past few months, interded to "give him a please of the Vegas Club" as a result of JACK RUBY having an argument with his sister, EVA RUBY, who had been managing the Club Vegas. He said, however, that JACK RUBY has never actually turned over any of the ownership of the Club Vegas to him.

He said that JACK RUEY still over him a belance of about $1.300 on a $5.500 loss which he made to JACK in about 1955. He said the last payment JACK made on this loss was in about 1958, when their father, JOSEFH PURESTEIN, died in Chicago, and JACK PURY reid his, SAM's, airplane fare from Pallas to Chicago to attend their father's funeral. He further advised that semetime during the fall or early winter of 1960 his eister, MARION CARPOLL, visited in Dallas and, while here, lossed JACK RUBY a fairly large sum of money. He said she later regretted making this loss and his brother, EARL, came to Dallas sometime in the Suring of 1961 for the rurpose of recovering the amount of this loss for MARION. He said he does not know if EARL was successful in this attempt or if EARL paid MARION the amount of the loss and thereby became a creditor of JACK RUBY.

He said he does not know whether or not EARL RUBY has a financial interest in the Carousel Club or the Club Veges at Dallas, but if he does have, this interest may have arisen out of the above-martineed loss.

He concluded by stating that he has no knowledge of the financial or correcte structure of the S & B Correction or of the Carousel Club or Club Vegas in Dellas, Texas.
