

UPDATE ON CRACKING THE JFK CASE CONFERENCE

(To Be Held in Bethesda, Maryland, November 18-20, 2005)

The very favorable rate which the AARC negotiated with the Bethesda Hyatt Regency expires on October 28th. That rate is $115 per night for single and double occupancy. After that the rate goes much higher. Moreover, the hotel has advised that it expects to sell out shortly thereafter, so no rooms will be available..

To register at the Bethesda Hyatt Regency Hotel , call (800) 233-1234 or (301) 657-1234 and mention the JFK Case Conference.

The program is not quite complete but should be issued by next Monday or Tuesday.

A recent addition to the program is Prof. G. Robert Blakey, who will speak at the dinner Saturday evening. His speech is entitled "Second Thoughts." Blakey ran the congressional investigation into President Kennedy's assassination.

Former Senator Gary Hart has tentatively agreed to speak at our conference.

Other speakers and the topics or titles of their speeches include:

Joan Mellen, Ph.D.	A Farewell to Justice: Jim Garrison, JFK's Assassination, and the Case That Should Have Changed History
Jefferson Morley WashingtonPost.com columnist	What Mexico City Station Chief Win Scott Knew: CIA Deception Around Oswald's Visit to Mexico City
David Talbot Founder of salon.com	If There Was a Conspiracy, Why Didn't Bobby Do Anything About It?
Prof. David Wrone Author of The Zapruder Film: Reframing JFK's Assassination	JFK, LBJ and the American Empire
James Bamford Author of Body of Secrets	Seven Days in May: The Military vs. JFK
Richard J. Whalen Author of The Founding Father, a biography of Joseph Kennedy	The JFK Assassination: Origin at the Bay of Pigs
Prof. John M. Newman Author of Oswald and the CIA and JFK and Vietnam	James J. Angleton and the Assassination of President Kennedy

Prof. Peter Dale Scott
Author of Deep Politics
and Deep Politics II

Joseph Milteer, Pedro del Valle,
Northwoods, and the Strategy
of Tension

Patrick M. Grant, Ph.D.

Proper Assessment of the Bullet Lead
Evidence from the Assassination of President Kennedy, Part I

Eric Randich, Ph.D.

Proper Assessment of the Bullet Lead
Evidence from the Assassination of President Kennedy, Part II

Josiah Thompson, Ph.D.

Bedrock Evidence in the Kennedy Assassination: Where Can You Find It?

Dr. Gary Aguilar
and
Dr. Randolph Robertson

Will give presentations on the crime scene evidence of conspiracy with emphasis on what has been learned since the release of records under the JFK Act.

Richard Garwin, Ph.D.
and
Don B. Thomas, Ph.D.

Garwin, who was associated with the National Academy of Science's Ramsey Panel that criticized the HSCA's acoustics findings will present views which contrast with those which Don Thomas espoused in the British Science and Justice journal more than four and a half years ago. Thomas will defend his study showing that more than three shots were fired in Dealey Plaza.

Dan Alcorn, J.D.

The Danger of Secret Power in a Democracy

Others who will speak and/or participate in panels at the conference include Jim Lesar, and Prof. Gerald McKnight (author of the just published Breach of Trust: How the Warren Commission Failed the Nation and Why (University of Kansas Press).

The AARC now has a blog which will become active shortly at jfkaccountability.org. Our website is aarclibrary.org.

To register for the conference, email us at truthsourclient@yahoo.com or phone us at (202) 628-6608.