Re: Telephone Conversation between the President and Bob Kintner
(to Mr. Kintner) and Jim Haggarty, 11/27/63

While working on preservation of the dictabelts, the archives staff observed the following inaccuracy in the transcript:

The transcript shows both Kintner and Haggarty talking to the President. However, the conversation is between the President and only Haggarty; remarks shown as Kintner's are actually Haggarty's. Kintner's conversation was announced but not recorded. There were two separate conversations shown in the Diary, Kintner at 2:00 p.m. and Haggarty at 2:04 p.m.

TELEPHONE CONVERSATION BETWEEN THE PRESIDENT AND BOB KINTNER
(to Mr. Kintner) AND JIM HAGGARTY

LBJ
.....people have been to me and I'm very much in your debt... grateful to you..

BK I'm in your debt, sir. You don't have to do or say that. That was a fine address to Congress today.

LBJ Well, they were very good to me..on both sides, I thought..and I appreciated it.

BK Well, as I say, God bless you and anything I can do to help...anytime you say Mr. President

LBJ Well, I'm just..just got this one by me now and I don't want you to make a special trip but when you're here, I want you to come in and just chew the rag a little bit..

JH Anytime you say...

LBJ Had Bob Anderson in and the General..and you saw the prudence and the thrift, and the dollar's value for every dollar spent and so forth and... I thought that we had a pretty good statement. And I want all the help of all Americans ..and particularly yours cause I've been your admirer a long time.

JH Well I'm a great admirer of yours and whenever I can help any of your staff I'd be more than happy to and I wouldn't presume to be help to you but if I can,

LBJ You certainly can..you certainly can. And I want to see you the first time you're here.

JH All right sir...whenever your people say, I can come down anytime.

LBJ O.K. Be in touch with you.

JH & BK Thank you very much

LBJ Bye, Jim and Bob
